

SHERRY BOYKIN

Growing Your Faith Bigger Than Your “But!”

Looking for an engaging, energetic deliverance of the life-changing message of God's Word? Sherry's passion and humor provide the perfect combination of depth and fun to make your event the unforgettable, spirit-building, pinch-me-please! party you want for your guests.

Sherry's experiences as an inner-city ministries worker, as a jungle missionary to Peru, and as an old maid who dated twenty years before finding her Mr. Right provide a humorous backdrop for countless life lessons laced through the Word. In her thirteen years of marriage and campus ministry, she has dorm-parented hundreds of undergraduate men—a ministry that necessitates constant dispensing of relationship advice, premarital counseling, and Kleenex.

Sherry serves as adjunct faculty for Ministry Communication, and team-teaches Marriage and Family Dynamics with her husband, Ted. They are the proud, exhausted, middle-aged parents of an early elementary fireball named Kaki, and they make their home in Northeast Pennsylvania.
